

The coppe of the Submissyon of Dneyll / which he made to the Kynge's Maestie at Grenewych the .xxiii. daye of September / in the .xxiii. yere of his Maesties most noble raygne / and deliuered to his Hyghnes in wrytyng / subscribed with his owne hande on this lacyon. *

C To the Kynge's Maestie / our most gracious Soueraygne Lorde.

I Leaseth your most excellent Maestie / I Dneyll one of your Maesties most humble subiectes of the Realme of Ireland / do confesse & knowledg befoze your most excellent hyghnes that by ignoraunce & for lacke of knowledg of my most bounde duty of alegiaunce / I haue most greuously offended your Maestie / for the which I aske your Grace here mercy and forgiveness / most humbly besechynge your hyghnes of your most gracious pardon / refusynge my name and State / which I haue usurped hypon your grace agaynst my dutye and requyrynge your Maestie of your clemencie / to gyue me what name / State / title / lande / or bypynge it shall please your Hyghnes / which I shall knowledg to take and hold of your Maesties mere gift / And in all thynges do here after / as shall beseme your most true and fapthfull subiecte.

C And God saue your Hyghnes.

C The name of the Erledom gyuen to Dneyll at Grenewych the fyrst day of October in the aboue named yere of the raygne of our sayd Soueraygne Lorde Kynge Henry the eyght.

C Leu Treshaust et puissant Syr Connaue Countye de Xyonne en la Resme de Irelande.

His sonnes name is Mathye / Baron of Doncane.

C Imprinted at London in Saynt Sepulchres Parlysh in the Old Bayle / by Rycharde Lant. for Iohn Cough dwellynge at Smarthes kay next Byllynges Gate. Cum priuile gio ad imprimendum solum.